

Combined Search & Rescue and Helicopter Landing Officer (HLO) Refresher

Book at maersktraining.com

AVAILABLE LANGUAGES

English, Norwegian

This combined refresher course maintains and further develops the knowledge, skills and attitudes required for personnel serving in search and rescue and helideck emergency response functions, with strong emphasis on practical training and exercises.

Essential Information

Prerequisites

Participants must have completed: HLO Basic Course Search and Rescue Team Basic Course Personnel who have not served in an emergency response role and have not completed emergency response training or equivalent training within the last 5 years must complete the relevant basic course again.

Who is it for?

Active members of the following emergency response teams: Search and Rescue Team Helideck Crew

Assessment

Participants are assessed throughout all practical training. If a participant does not successfully complete the practical training, the reason for the assessment outcome will be provided. Participants who do not demonstrate achievement of the required competence objectives will not successfully complete the course.

Certification

Upon successful completion, you will receive a certificate valid for 2 years

Course content

• Emergency Preparedness

Emergency response organisation, roles and responsibilities during emergency situations.

• Patient Assessment

Systematic assessment of injured or affected persons during an emergency.

• Firefighting Media

Selection and use of appropriate firefighting media.

• Firefighting and Containment

Containment Practical methods for extinguishing and containing fires.

• First Aid

Practical first aid relevant to emergency response activities.

• Fire Theory

Principles of fire behaviour, prevention and firefighting.

• Firefighting Equipment

Practical use of relevant firefighting and emergency response equipment.

• Physiology

Physiological considerations relevant to emergency response and breathing apparatus use.

- Breathing Apparatus

Use of compressed-air and other breathing apparatus during emergency response.

- Pressurised Gases and Liquids

Hazards associated with gases and liquids under pressure during emergency situations.

- Rescue During Fire

Practical rescue activities during fire and smoke-related emergencies.

- Search and Rescue

Practical search and rescue activities, including operations in smoke-filled environments.

- Mental Reactions and Stress

Recognition and management of mental reactions and stress during accidents and major emergencies.

Key Learning Objectives

01 L01 – Maintain and further develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes required for assigned search and rescue duties.

03 L03 – Apply appropriate first aid and patient assessment during emergency situations.

05 L05 – Apply search, rescue and firefighting techniques during emergency response exercises.

02 L02 – Maintain and further develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes required for assigned helideck emergency response duties.

04 L04 – Use firefighting media, firefighting equipment and breathing apparatus appropriately.

06 L06 – Recognise physiological and mental reactions associated with emergency response and stress.