

Treinamento de Segurança Marítima para Tripulação sem Funções de Segurança Designadas

Reserve em maersktraining.com

IDIOMAS DISPONÍVEIS

Inglês, Norueguês

Informações essenciais

Pré-requisitos

No prerequisites.

Para quem é?

Seafarers who are required to have security awareness training but are not assigned designated security duties onboard ship.

Avaliação

Participants must successfully complete a final examination covering the competence requirements of STCW Table A-VI/6-1.

Certificação

Upon successful completion you will receive a certificate in accordance with STCW Table A-VI/6-1.

Course content

• Security Terminology

Common definitions and terminology used in maritime security.

• Regulatory Framework

Relevant national and international maritime security requirements.

• Roles and Responsibilities

Security roles and responsibilities of personnel onboard ship.

• Ship Security Actions

Security measures and actions implemented onboard in response to security concerns.

• Maritime Security Policy

Maritime security policies and principles relevant to shipboard operations.

• Sensitive Information

Handling and protection of security-sensitive information.

• Threat Identification and Response

Recognition of potential security threats and appropriate reporting and response actions.

• Preparedness, Training and Drills

Security preparedness, training and exercises used to maintain shipboard security awareness.

Key Learning Objectives

01 L01 — Explain common maritime security definitions and terminology

03 L03 — Explain the roles and responsibilities of personnel involved in shipboard security.

05 L05 — Explain the importance of protecting security-sensitive information.

02 L02 — Describe relevant maritime security policies and national and international security requirements.

04 L04 — Recognise potential security threats and apply appropriate reporting and response actions.

06 L06 — Describe shipboard security actions, preparedness measures, training and drills.